REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF THE SHEDD-PORTER MEMORIAL LIBRARY

As your librarian, I hereby submit my first annual report.

During the months of January, February and March, Miss Edna Reeder conducted a story hour for children on Saturday afternoons.

Pupils of the schools have used the library for reference work and for book reports. A shelf of books was set aside for the science classes of the high school.

The quiz program on the WKNE radio has stimulated interest in many subjects. Because of this people have come to consult the magazines and encyclopedias.

During the summer months many of our summer residents took advantage of the opportunities offered by our library and we had many visitors who admired our building.

The appearance of our building was greatly improved by new paint on the woodwork around the windows and two coats of varnish on the doors.

I am pleased to report that our circulation of books and magazines during July and August was higher than it has been for five years.

All pupils through the first eight grades visited the library during Book Week. Mrs. Edith Chase interested the children of the first and second grades with her readings. The librarian talked to the other grades about Mr. Shedd and the care of the library, and read selections from some of the new books.

Total estimated income	$14,057 26	$15,657 00
To be raised by taxation	$16,266 74	$21,830 00

Salary increases have been met in part by an adjustment made in December. The budget represents a sum sufficient to allow increases to all the teachers another year to keep them within the average range for schools of our size.

The increase in other expenses of instruction is to pay service charges on correspondence courses taken by pupils in high school. This work is carried on in cooperation with the State Board of Education and the University of Nebraska, and allows pupils to carry courses not offered here because of limited demand or insufficient teaching staff.

The transportation budget is the actual cost of carrying children at the present time.

Last year there was a balance of $3,000.00 we could credit against taxation. We do not anticipate any balance this year.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Alstead:

I herewith submit my second annual report as Superintendent of Schools:

Considerable concern is being shown throughout the nation over the shortage of capable teachers for our schools. Practically every magazine and daily paper has articles stressing the major causes and outlining methods of alleviating the condition. If the public had been willing to recognize this problem a generation ago we might have sufficient teachers today to fill all our classrooms.

The teacher-situation in New Hampshire is worse than last year, and the outlook for the future is no better. Only a few prospective teachers are enrolled at the Teachers' Colleges, despite large numbers in attendance.

The State Board of Education is sponsoring a new State Aid plan which should, if passed by the legislature, do much to relieve the towns of excessive property taxation for school purposes. The plan has been presented to our public press and should be familiar to every citizen.

Last February we were able to obtain Mr. Martin Mitchell as teacher of agriculture, science, and shop. He has been able to build up this department a great deal. Miss Spaulding resigned at the end of the year and her place has been taken by Mrs. Ball, an excellent teacher of considerable experience.

The transportation system has been revised and strengthened by a large bus from East Alstead bringing in the older children on that road and Alstead Center.

Your committee elected at last year's district meeting to study the grammar school needs, has been active all year. A trip was made last spring to inspect a number of modern buildings similar to your needs in Alstead. The committee has investigated possible sites for a new building, and will make a report at the district meeting.

VILAS HIGH SCHOOL REPORT 1946

Eleven students were graduated last June. One is attending Keene Teachers College, three boys entered the armed forces, two are married and five are working.

Classes have contributed to the Junior Red Cross, and Polio. They have also carried on their weekly savings.

The Vilas High School basketball team was invited for the third time in succession to represent this area in the Class C tournament held at Durham. The team was eliminated in its initial game to Henniker High School coached by "Widgy" Mitchell, a graduate of Vilas. Bronze charms were awarded to each boy.

The Seniors journeyed to Canobie Lake, Salem, New Hampshire for their class trip.

The Vilas touch football team won ten football games last fall and are undefeated in this sport for four years.

There are several clubs in existence in this school. Home Economics Club, Future Farmers of America, Forensic Club, Vilas Athletic Association, Girls Council and Vilas Lettermen's Association.

Several students are taking correspondence courses through the University of Nebraska Extension Service. Courses being taken are: Latin, Spanish, Mechanical Drawing, Automotive Mechanics, Sketching, and Gasoline Engines.

For the first time credit is given to each student taking a music subject. One-quarter point credit may be received for each of the following: special chorus, band, orchestra, and the newly organized boy's chorus. These classes meet the required number of periods a week, passing state requirements.

Individual periods are available for students who wish instruction on instruments.

This year a joint Christmas Concert was held with Walpole, this combining the musical talents and giving the students opportunity to show their abilities in performance.

The annual operetta is planned and on Memorial Day the band takes part in services.

Early last spring both the high school and junior high girls joined with the boys in presenting a Parents' Night program of physical education activities which included gymnastics and folk dancing. At the close of the basketball season the girls invited a group of Walpole High School girls to participate in a basketball play-day.

A new archery set was used for the first time during the spring out-door program with an enthusiastic group enjoying the sport. Tennis classes were supplemented by a mixed doubles elimination tournament conducted during the noon activity period, and a third group of girls played softball. The aim of this varied program is to provide an opportunity for each girl to find a place in an activity interesting to her and thus benefit from participation in recreational sports.

The winter program has been further broadened by the addition of a badminton set to our equipment.

The fall out-door activities culminated in a play-day with forty-five girls from three other schools joining the Vilas girls in a schedule of archery, tennis, and soccer.

The girls' council members worked with the Lettermen's Association in sponsoring the annual fall A. A. Dance.

During the spring term of '46 and fall of '47 the commercial students spent some time in learning the operation of and in transcribing at the dietaphone.

Since many of the students look for personal use of the business subjects as well as for vocational efficiency, they typed papers for classes, recipes, menus, personal letters, and letters for other students and teachers. Likewise, in book-keeping, the students planned household and personal budgets and records for keeping them.

In addition to doing the office work for the school, the commercial students learned to cut stencils properly and to operate the Mimeograph efficiently by typing the Vernacular, School Chatter, and programs for the Plays, Fair, and other school entertainments.

On February 2, 1946 eight students representing Vilas attended the annual practice debate tournament held at Laconia High School. Here they not only entered in several contests, but also received the experience of judging and presiding as chairmen over a debate that occurred between two schools other than their own.

Again in the English classes this year public speaking has been stressed. In an oratorical contest sponsored by the Department of Americanism and conducted by the American Legion everyone was requested either to submit a written essay or to be prepared to give a ten minute speech on some individually selected phase of the Constitution of the United States.

Two students were then selected from each of the four senior high classes to speak on their chosen subjects at a special assembly with three guests from the town as judges.

The winner of this contest then proceeded at a later date to enter the county contest which was held at the Keene High School. Here he delivered only his oration but also an extemporaneous speech based on one of the amendments of the Constitution.

In an essay contest based on the Constitution and other events of history sponsored by the American Legion we were very pleased to have three of our students win prizes for their creative work.

We wish to thank the Legion for inspiring these young people to place their aims and ambitions on a higher level, and for helping in part to achieve them.

Because so much responsibility is placed upon every high school graduate, for their theme the class of 1946 chose "The Builders of Tomorrow." In this, four individuals representing the youth of today attempt to make their world a safer and saner place by intelligent thinking and planning toward a desired goal.

"The Foundation—the Builder," "The Structure—Science," "The Content—Culture," and "The Roof—Education" were essays written and delivered by the four honor students who aimed to pave the way for other ambitious, young Americans.

In order to illustrate each topic four tableaux were presented.

A typical high school boy, dreaming over his school books, sees himself garbed in cap and gown with a diploma in his hand. At his feet are three lovely maidens dressed in red, white, and blue representing courage, chastity and virtue; these are the three most important factors needed in the character building of this young individual.

In order to be a "whole man" he must have a well-rounded education; the first requisite of culture is music. In this tableau a young student holding a violin is patiently receiving guidance and instruction from his teacher.

One must have an occupation, and as the field of science offers so many opportunities, the young student sees a laboratory; a scientist clad in white is discussing a new experiment with his assistant.

In the last tableau the young student has discarded his books and desk and has joined his fellow classmates in an attempt to make his dreams a living actuality.

Clad in caps and gowns he and two others, in hope that someone else may see it and be inspired, hold very proudly their motto, "What we are to be we are becoming."

Because of the ever-increasing interest in books and their authors, we wish to again thank the librarian for the use of the library and its facilities.

This year we began work in vocational agriculture with 32 boys enrolled. Since this figure comes to nearly 70% of the boys enrolled in the high school we were very pleased with the result. There were three seniors, eight juniors, eight sophomores and twelve freshmen; who were representing Charlestown, Langdon, Marlow, Acworth, Gilsum, Lempster and of course Alstead.

The boys were hardly back in school before they had to go to work on the Cheshire Fair exhibit. They co-operated with the Walpole boys in exhibiting their products. The poultry, livestock and vegetable exhibits were the main points of interest, with the poultry exhibit the largest and best in several years according to the judges. Plans have been made to have larger exhibits next fall, with more interest in poultry and livestock exhibits.

The annual school fair was sponsored October 10 by the agriculture and home economics classes with the fullest co-operation and support of the rest of the school. This year the poultry exhibit received the most emphasis; the boys having nearly fifty cages of hens, turkeys, ducks and geese. The plans have been made to enlarge their livestock exhibit next year, and perhaps add a horse pulling contest.

The interscholastic judging contest was not held this year at the University of New Hampshire due to the very crowded conditions at the College. The boys were very disappointed, but Mr. Little, the School Supervisor of Agriculture, tells us that something of the same nature of this contest will be carried on in the near future.

The Vilas Chapter of Future Farmers of America have been becoming increasingly more active this past year. Last spring three of the boys attended the Granite State Meeting held in Warner, New Hampshire. The organization raised enough money this year to pay half fare, $96.00 toward sending two boys, Fred Putnam and Herbert Holmes to the National

F. F. A. Victory Convention held in Kansas City, Missouri. One boy, Ralph Balla, paid his own way and reported the trip very much worth the expense. This trip gave the boys a chance to meet and share their experiences with farm boys of their own age from every state in the Union.

They saw among other things the famous American Royal Livestock Show in Kansas City, Swifts Plant, the Chicago stock yards and the world famous Chicago Museum of Natural History. Next year the F. F. A. boys hope to be able to pay half the expenses of at least four boys on this most worthwhile trip.

On January 10th, the F. F. A. held a turkey banquet with several well known speakers, Mr. Hubbard, Mr. Ahern, Mr. Perkins, and Mr. Cole addressing about 70 boys, their fathers and friends. The food was prepared and served in an excellent manner by the Home Economics Department. This event has been planned as an annual affair; by which a closer understanding and co-operative spirit may be developed between the boys in the Agriculture Department, their fathers and farmers in the community.

The class room work this fall has followed a four year plan of work enabling the boys to become increasingly familiar and proficient with the problems facing the farmers of this area. The junior and senior classes have made several visits to local farms and one trip to Hartland, Vermont to see the Vermont jersey cattle show. A visit was made in Claremont to see a new type insilage harvester. More field trips are planned for the spring months. The material for class room work is not taken exclusively from text books, as was once the case, but rather from a combination of text books, magazine articles, reports from the United States Department of Agriculture, the Agricultural College at Durham, moving pictures, ideas gained from successful farmers in the community and many other sources too numerous to mention. The farm work shop is an important part of the over all success of the farm, so the school farm shop program is conducted with special attention to preparing the boys so that they may build certain small units, repair, and recondition the endless amount of farm machinery the modern farmer has and even make alterations on the farm building. This past year has seen doodle bug tractors, chicken hoppers, at least two 18 foot tractor trailers, wheel barrows, single trees and eveners, many small pieces of forge work such as chisels, scoot pins and irons, stone drags and the like, leave the shop. Much emphasis is put on repairing and reconditioning farm machinery this year when it has been so hard to obtain. Three pieces of shop equipment, a tap and die set, an electric drill press, and an electric table saw have been obtained from the Government war surplus commodities to help us in our work in the shop.

BUILDING AND EQUIPMENT

Considerable grading has been done at East Alstead to eliminate the boggy front yard of the school lot and to provide adequate play area.

The interior of the village school was repainted during the summer. A group of mothers are cooperating in supplying a hot lunch program for the Village school children. This project is carried on under the Federal Hot Lunch Program, and provides, at a nominal fee, a balanced meal to either replace or supplement whatever lunch the child may bring from home. The lack of facilities at the school necessitates most of the preparation and cleaning up being done outside the school.

An electric water cooler has been purchased and set up in the school. This was voted at the last district meeting. Shortages of materials have delayed getting this into operation as soon as was hoped. This helps keep the water palatable, but we still have to rely on neighbors for the supply.

At Vilas school the floors were refinished. The boiler has been reconverted to oil, and both burners overhauled. The painting program had to be postponed for another year due to lack of labor. It is hoped to get back on a schedule of painting that will result in having the interior painted every four or five years, by doing a few rooms every year. The ceiling of the cafeteria has been sound-proofed. This cuts down practically all the noise and makes for greater quiet and less nerve tension while eating. The corridors, both upstairs and down, should be treated as soon as conditions warrant. There is some outside painting and roof work that should be done as soon as labor conditions will allow.

A horizontal play-ladder has been installed at the Village school. It is hoped to add a few new see-saw teeters.

The Village school appreciated the money given for Christmas presents.

This year a number of high school pupils are taking courses by correspondence through the University of Nebraska. These are courses which we wouldn't be able to give, due to lack of available teaching staff. These courses fill a need for enlarged program at Vilas.

The enrollment at Vilas is higher than last year, and emphasizes again, the need for a larger elementary unit to care for the first six grades.

The enlarged lunch program in both the Village school and Vilas point to the need for more adequate facilities in this department. It is hoped that the building committee will be created and empowered to go ahead with plans for a definite objective in elementary education.

I wish to express appreciation for the excellent support and cooperation received from the members of the School Board, teachers, parents and pupils.

Respectfully submitted,

THERON B. THOMPSON,

Superintendent of Schools.

HELP YOUR FOREST FIRE WARDEN PREVENT FIRES—IT PAYS!

The prevention of forest fires is the most important and difficult part of the work of your forest fire warden who heads a local organization set up primarily for the security of your community's forest property. The importance and value of the work of the forest fire warden and his deputies is, perhaps, best appreciated during hazardous periods when fire danger is greatest. The public, however, looks to him at all times for speedy and economical suppression of going fires

To properly fulfill his mission, the warden needs the generous and understanding cooperation of the public at large. He attempts to secure this cooperation by the posting of caution notices, news items and by word of mouth, always carefully explaining the necessity of restrictions imposed. In the matter of giving cooperation, however, the public often fails. The record shows that an average of 7,300 acres of woodland are burned over by forest fires in New Hampshire each year. Analysis of fire causes reveal the fact that more than 98 percent of all forest fires are, consistently, the result of human carelessness and are preventable.

The careless smoker fails to properly extinguish his cigar, cigarette or pipe ashes or thoughtlessly throws them from the car window; the debris burner fails or refuses to consult the warden, as the law requires when the ground is not covered with snow, before attempting to burn; campers fail to properly extinguish their fires or frequently build fires when conditions are unfavorable.

Remember these rules:

1. Use ordinary common sense with fire in and near woodland.
2. Comply with requirements on the use of fire in and near woodland and when the ground is not covered with snow, secure written permission to burn from the forest fire warden.
3. Be careful when smoking in or near woodlands. Don't throw lighted material from moving vehicles.
4. Cooperate with and assist the warden and urge others to do so.
5. HELP YOUR FOREST FIRE WARDEN PREVENT FIRES—his efforts are only as effective as is the cooperation you give him!

F. J. BAKER,
District Fire Chief.
